CAMPUS CLIPPINGS

P. B. S.

A local newspaper recently carried a report of a Hopkins student who cut a few classes and was married. Although the paper made no attempt to distinguish between cause and effect, there should be a warning there somewhere for those of us who are tempted to play "hookey."

What ever happened to that real, live Greyhound we were to get last Fall? "The Greyhound Express" came in last week but the pup wasn't on it.

It is rumored that the Sophs are planning a Class Nite to be held in the near future. While it is to be a closed affair, many are predicting a "wide-open" evening.

However, as the present Soph class is justly notorious for its Puritanical self-restraint and its gentlemanly deportment under all conditions, some parts of the scene of the "blow-out" will undoubtedly remain intact.

Society Notes

Hank Delea, who is training for his initial appearance as best man (see Alumni column), has had a hair-cut. While the familiar artiste effect is gone, we can now glimpse more of the real, the inner Hank.

FRESHMAN DANCE OPENS SOCIAL SEASON AT LOYOLA

Committee Hopes for Large Gathering in Gym on Friday Evening

The Freshmen are all ready to draw aside the curtain that had been drawn on social activities at Evergreen during the holy season of Lent and to introduce to Loyola students and friends the first early Spring Dance in the Gymnasium on Friday evening, April 12th.

The Dance Committee, after careful consideration, have decided on T. Worth Murphy as the best choice of local orchestral talent and Mr. Murphy has in turn promised an attractive program of music. The Committee too has decided that the distribution of tickets for the dance is quite an unnecessary item and are depending on the good memories of the Student Body to recall that very important date of April 12th and on their good spirit to support without further invitation a social event at Evergreen which, if successful this year, will serve as a precedent for future Freshman socials.

While the Freshmen have no intention of vying with the Juniors in the work of decorating the Gym for the occasion, yet there will be decorations and tasty decorations too, the kind that will make her glad that she came. It is then for every Loyola student to make sure that he won't be sorry that she wasn't glad on Friday evening, April 12th.

COMMUNION BREAKFAST FOR ALUMNI IN GYM APRIL 14

Notices have already been sent out to all the members of the Alumni Association and the Committee has been very active in making preparations for the Communion Breakfast which will be set for April 14th in the Evergreen Gymnasium.

The Holy Sacrifice will be celebrated in the Students' Chapel, and will be said by an Alumnus priest. All will receive Holy Communion at this Mass and then will proceed to the Gym where breakfast will be served. Breakfast over, Mr. Daniel Donahue of the Faculty of Georgetown University Law School, the speaker for the occasion, will address the gathering.

The Annual Alumni Communion Breakfast has, in recent years been considered "a thing of the past", but with the spirit of the Alumni taking on new life, it is sincerely hoped that the revival of this most

TRIALS FOR THE PRIZE DEBATE

On Friday afternoon, March 22, were held the preliminaries for the Annual Prize Debate. Each speaker was permitted eight minutes to uphold his side of the question: "Resolved, that the United States Government should not supply arms to the Mexican Government during the present Mexican Revolution."

The Judges were unanimous in the selection of Messrs. Sybert, Senior, Carr, Sophomore, Porter and Hartman, Freshmen as the best speakers of the day and these four gentlemen will take their places in the Prize Debate for the Jenkins Medal.

The question for the Annual Prize Debate reads as follows: "Resolved, that the Jury System in the State of Maryland be completely abolished." Messrs. Carr and Porter will defend the affirmative side of the question, and Messrs. Sybert and Hartman, the negative.

BILL LISTON ELECTED CAPTAIN OF 1929-30 GREYHOUND QUINT

"Big Bill" Liston, who, by his hard and consistent defensive and defensive play, was greatly responsible for the Greyhounds' very successful basketball season, receiving a fitting reward for his untiring efforts when he was elected to lead next season's Green and Gray Quintet to another State Championship. The election took place at the Greyhound Banquet of happy memory, which was sponsored by the Alumni.

The result of the election was most pleasing to the entire Student Body and all feel that if the Greyhounds are infected with the Liston "do or die" spirit there will be every reason to hope for a perfectly clean slate in next year's Basketball Schedule.

FR. STROHAVER CONDUCTS ANNUAL 3-DAY RETREAT

Student Body Receives Communion on Holy Thursday to complete Successful Triduum

On Monday March 25 the annual three day Student Retreat began in the College Chapel after being postponed from the early part of the year because of building operations going on adjacent to the Chapel.

Loyola was privileged in obtaining Father Strohaber as the Retreat Master. Father Strohaber is a Loyola alumnus and it is gratifying to note that he should return to his Alma Mater after an absence of twenty-two years to take charge of what is perhaps the three most important days in the college year.

Each retreat day was divided into three periods. The students began the day by assisting at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass which was followed by a talk. At 11 o'clock there were the Rosary and spiritual reading and then a conference in which Father Strohaber talked more intimately with the students concerning the every day problems that are besetting them in college life. In the afternoon

TRIALS ON APRIL 12 FOR THE ORATORICAL CONTEST

About twenty students have entered the preliminaries of the Annual Oratorical Contest and on the afternoon of the 12th of April the six best orators will be chosen to take part in the final contest.

The winner of the final contest will obtain a two-fold reward; he will be awarded on Commencement Night the Lee Gold Medal for Oratory, a prize offered annually for excellence in composition and delivery of an original speech; and secondly, he will have the honor of representing Loyola College in the National Oratorical Contest on the Constitution.

It will be remembered that last year's Loyola's representative in the person of Adolph M. Wasilifsky carried Loyola's banner through the State eliminations and on to Bucknell University, Lewisburg, Pa., where the semi-finals of the Fourth National Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest were held. That our representative this year will go as far and further seems to be the determination of every man who has entered the preliminary Annual Oratorical Contest of Loyola. That one of the twenty will carry out this determination is the fond hope of every true Loyola man.

GOLDEN JUBILEE

Twenty-five years ago in Rome a young cleric, prostrate before the Altar of God, with burning love, pledged himself to the honor and service of his Creator. Today, a quarter of a century later finds that same heart burning with the same love but in the breast not of a newly ordained priest but of His Grace, the Archbishop of Baltimore.

From the day of his ordination Father Curley plunged heart and soul into his life work, little dreaming of the honor that was to be his in later years. His untiring efforts aided by natural ability did not pass unnoticed and at an extraordinarily early age he was consecrated Bishop of St. Augustine, Florida. For eight years Bishop Curley shepherded his flock in this Florida diocese, loved and respected by all, until he was called to the Archdiocese of Baltimore to succeed our late beloved Cardinal Gibbons.

Innumerable have been Archbishop Curley's accomplishments in the Archdiocese of Baltimore, but most noteworthy has been His Grace's stand regarding Catholic education. Realizing the need of a highly educated laity, the Archbishop proceeded at once and in his characteristically thorough way to revise the parochial school system, and centralized the government of the parish schools under one director of education. The succeeding years have shown an ever increasing registration in Parochial Schools and many new schools have been erected to meet the demands of this increase.

We express our congratulations to Archbishop Curley on his twenty-fifth anniversary as a Priest of God and we earnestly trust that His Grace may continue to guide the flock entrusted to his diligent and prudent care for many years to come.

ANNUAL RETREAT

Echoes of the Annual Retreat will not soon fade away. Loyola was indeed doubly fortunate this year in the triduum of spiritual renovation; fortunate in obtaining Rev. George F. Strohaber, S. J. a most worthy Loyola Alumnus, as Retreat Master; and again fortunate in assignment of the Spiritual Exercises during the very appropriate season of Holy Week. The Retreat was a fitting prelude to the happy privilege of partaking of the Glories of the Risen Saviour.

"The Past, the Present, the Future," were subjects which took their place most fittingly in the spirit of the last week of the Lenten Season and the efforts of the Student Body during the three days in the "front line" with the Leader Christ were happily reflected at Evergreen on Holy Thursday morning when over a hundred students assisted at the Holy Sacrifice in the Students' Chapel and received the King of Kings in the Sacrament of His Love.

The Greyhound takes this opportunity to thank Father Strohaber in the name of the entire Student Body for his wise counsels, his brotherly direction, and his forceful and practical conferences during the Retreat. It wishes too to express the wish that his Eastertide has been as joyous as was that of the Loyola students whom he had aroused to a deeper understanding of the Sacred Mystery of the Resurrection.

MARSHAL FOCH

The event of Marshal Foch's death last month marks the close of the life of a great world figure, great in every respect. Foch the soldier, the man and the Christian passes on to his God amid sorrow and bereavement not only of his own family and beloved country but of the entire world as well. To his family he leaves the memory of a devoted Christian husband and father; to his beloved country the records of military genius and the achievements of a dauntless soldier; to the world he has shown that true greatness is found only in modest simplicity.

France does well to mourn the loss of her beloved son, to erect monuments in his honor, to set aside a tomb befitting his rank and merit. But the greatest honor that can be paid him is the honor that follows upon imitation. The memory of greatness is better kept alive in the minds and hearts of men than in the shape and form of stone.

JUNIOR PROM COMMITTEE PREPARE FOR GALA MAY 10

Only a few more weeks and before we realize it May 10th will be here; that day of days for which we have been waiting so impatiently.

Meanwhile all of the committees are head over heels in work and various reports from them give evidence that its splendor and sumptuousness will be beyond all expectation.

The Executive Committee in charge of all the arrangements is composed of the following Juniors: John Hild the major-domo, who acts in the capacity of chairman; Aquin Feeney is attending to the finances, a very delicate and important position. Bob Bouchelle is working on the Patrons and Patronesses, while Richard McLellan is seeing to it that everybody will receive an invitation.

Pete Kleff is head of the printing committee, and the grave and very serious matter of selecting favors is entrusted to John Kelly. Charlie Judge is busy picking the lucky orchestra and incidently he is having a rather hard time, as Paul Whiteman, Vincent Lopez, Ben Pollack and Guy Lombardo are all trying very hard to get the assignment.

Fleming of the entertainment committee will see to it that everybody has a grand and glorious time. Bernard Evering has charge of publicity and propaganda and lastly but not least Bill Simms and staff will decorate the gym in becoming fashion.

The Juniors are giving their best to make this prom a real Loyola Prom, but it is up to the school to put it over; so don't let your spirits lag.

SPRING

Sulphur and molasses; lunch hour and idling students lolling on the Charles Street Avenue slope watching the autos crawl along; Morpheus overcoming the few remaining attentives; Uncle Benny making overcoat loans that threaten his family existence; not a classmate objecting to the windows being opened; tonsorial Delilah wooing from many the accumulative locks of winter; ten o'clock classes becoming more popular; inviting walks Notre-Dameward; horsehide and bat renewing acquaintances of last season; a young man's fancy turning lightly to thoughts of the Junior Prom; text books carried only thru force of habit; squirrels becoming an active menace to the student; the well thatched campus delighting the olfactory nerves, speculation as to the best means of obtaining a laborless summer job rampant; trilling robins, shrinking violets and gamboling lambs to the contrary. It looks suspiciously like Sprig Hes Cubb.

The Greyhound extends the deep sympathy of the Student Body to John J. Moran, '32 on the death of his grandfather and to Thomas J. Grogan, '29 on the recent death of his uncle. R. I. P.

Alumni Notes

Executive Committee Meeting

The regular meeting of the Executive Committee was held according to schedule on Thursday evening, March 21st. in the Alumni Office, Evergreen. The purpose of this meeting was the reorganization and appointment of the officers of the Committee. J. A. Boyd was appointed Treasurer, G. Renehan, Recording Secretary and J. A. Walsh, Financial Secretary.

Chairmen Appointed

Nat Ferciot was appointed as Chairman of the Membership Committee; C. Caufield, Chairman of the Entertainment Committee; L. Roach, Chairman of the Mutual Aid Committee and Preston McNeal, Chairman of the College Interests Committee.

The Nominating Committee will be appointed, according to schedule, later in the year.

Catholic Education

Mr. Bourbon's motion at the last general elections that a Committee be organized with the set purpose of advertising the value of a rounded Catholic education was given due consideration at the Executive Meeting and Messrs. Bourbon and V. Fitzpatrick were appointed to complete the preliminary details of this intended movement.

Alumnus Retreat Master

Rev. George F. Strohaber S. J. who is now Professor of Chemistry at Holy Cross College, was in the city during Holy Week to give the annual students retreat at the college. The students have made many retreats but few have left so deep an impression.

Alumnus Weds

Another Alumnus has plunged into the Sea of Matrimony. On April 6 at St. Thomas Church, Roland Park, Michael F. Delea was married to Miss Eleanor Grogan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Grogan of 208 Hawthorne Road, Roland Park.

Felicitations, Mrs. Delea; Congratulations, Mike!

Adolph Wasilifsky

The Sophomore-Freshman debaters on their recent trip to Georgetown had the pleasure of receiving the commendations of Adolph M. Wasilifsky, who was a speaker of some note at Loyola during the past four years. Last year he won the sectional finals in the National Oratorical Contest at the Hilltop and is numbered among the faculty of G. U's. Physical Department.

Condolences

We note with sorrow the death of the father of Dr. John A. Scheurich, '16 and Antonius Scheurich, '25, who will be ordained to the Sacred Priesthood this year, and we assure these our worthy Alumni of our prayerful remembrance for the repose of his good soul. R. I. P.

FRESHMEN NINE PRIMED FOR THE OPENING GAME

That news of Freshmen baseball turned out to be something more than a mere rumor or myth.

Things have materialized with such celerity that even the Freshmen are gasping at the speed. Each afternoon the sun glares down on 12 or 15 of these frisky baseballers out on the college diamond battling for a berth under the tutelage of Coach Comerford.

The Freshmen are fortunate in having an abundance of fine material and with faithful practice they should round into a club that will be able to hold its own with the best High School teams in the state.

A merry battle is going on for the various positions and the final line-up will not be selected until a later date. Several combinations have been tried out but the one showing the best form to date is composed of the following: McCormack on first, Novak on the hot corner, Simms at short-stop and Thomen at second base, while Nooney, Cooney and Wise are gathering in the liners in the outfield. Wryzick is filling the backstop assignment.

But no one is assured of a position and all places will be open to the man showing the best form up to the time of the first game. Novak is being hard pushed by Klemkoski for the third base position and O'Neal has been showing to good advantage in the outfield.

The play-off between the Juniors and Freshmen on Friday March 15 closed the Interclass basketball season. When the scheduled season was over these two teams were tied for first place both having won five games and lost one.

Much interest was centered on this game and a number were on hand in the gym to cheer on their favorites. The Freshmen who were the favorites throughout the tournament were perhaps a little over-confident and trailed throughout the entire game.

However the game was close all the way with only a few points separating the teams at any time. But the Freshmen could not rise to the occasion and the final whistle found them on the short end of a 20-17 score.

The game was clean and fast. Not a substitute was used and the same ten men who started finished the game.

Both teams are to be complimented on their playing and especially the two mainstays of the Junior team—Kane and Delea. Jimmy was the high point scorer of the league with Hank following closely on his heels.

COACH HORN TO SELECT TEAM FOR PENN RELAYS

With the first appearance of the robins and incidentally of warm weather the track team has transferred its activities from the gym to the cinder track.

Mr. Horn, the coach, has not as yet joined the team but will do so after the Easter holidays. However daily work-outs are in order and the coach on his appearance will find his men in the best of condition.

There are quite a few men trying out for the team at present and of these nine are training for the relay team—Sanders, Endres, Pick, Moran, Houchens, McGee, Carr, Dunnigan and Smith. To date no one has been assured of a position, so there is some keen rivalry among these track luminaries.

A few members of the team are suffering from injuries but with a good rest over the holidays all are expected to report back in fine shape with the possible exception of McGee. He is bothered by the return of an injury received during the football season, which may bar him from track for the rest of the year.

The final tryouts for the relay team will be held on April 15. The quartet selected will represent the Greyhounds in the Penn relays to be held on April 26 and 27.

THREE GREYHOUNDS PLACED ON EVENING SUN'S STATE FIVES

More honor was heaped upon our championship basketball team, when captain-elect Bill Liston and Utz Twardowicz were selected on the official All-Maryland collegiate basketball team.

These men are indeed worthy of the honor bestowed upon them. Little Utz Twardowicz with his brilliant dribbling and keen eye was one of the main cogs in the Greyhound basketball machine and in this department he has surpassed all who have appeared on the Evergreen court. No word need be said further of Bill Liston, our captain-elect, except that he is without exception the best guard in the state.

Liston and Twardowicz were not the only Loyola men to receive recognition. Frank Dudley, our brilliant forward, caused "Shootin' em" many moments of worry in deciding whether to place him on the first or second team. Frank however lost out by a shade to Geraitis of Washington College and he was placed on the second team.

The Greyhound wishes to congratulate Liston, Twardowicz and Dudley for the honor they have brought to Loyola and to themselves.

BILL LISTON

Bill a member of the Sophomore Class has been one of the mainstays of the team throughout their present championship season. He is a finished player and the best guard in the state as is evidenced by his selection on the official All-Maryland Collegiate Basketball quint.

Speedy and tall Bill has always been a man feared by the opponents on both the defense and offense. On the defense no visiting forwards have taken undue liberty of our basket while Bill was around and on the offense he has found his opponents basket consistently for many points to enable the Greyhounds to eke out a victory over their rivals.

But besides his good all around work on the court Liston has what is most necessary for a successful captain—a fighting Loyola spirit and a personality that will enable him to obtain the best from the team.

NEW COLLEGE SONG

Loyola

(Flow Gently Sweet Afton)

We're the Sons of Loyola, the green and the gray
And we welcome that hour wherein we can say—
Earnest sons of Loyola, may we without shame
Be forever deserving her dearly loved name.

Passing out from thy shelters to the battle of life,
Next to God and to country, to children and wife,
Alma Mater, Loyola, thy sons still shall say
We are true to Loyola, the green and the gray.

Then hail fair Loyola, thy green and thy gray
Triumphant shall wave forever and aye
And loyal thy sons at thy shrine shall be seen
Ever true, ever faithful to gray and to green.

Ever true ever faithful to the lessons they've learned
Beneath thy fond shelters. Their hearts still have burned
With enduring affection, let happen what may
They'll be true to Loyola, the green and the gray.

Mild, yes; but there's no Scotch in the flavor!

A well known golf p. recently returned from a vacation in Glasgow, his home town, relates a current golf magazine. "Well," he was asked, "how did the boys treat you back home?" "Verra reluctantly!" said he. Well might some smokers likewise reply if asked about their cigarette, we imagine. Mild, of course (most cigarettes are, today), but "verra reluctant" when it comes to delivering taste and body and character.

Chesterfields were blended to supply just that "body" which so many "mild" cigarettes lack. For in addition to that desirable blandness there is a distinct "edge" to its smooth, mellow flavor which is just what the smoke appetite craves.

Mild—yes; just that mildness which everyone wants—but something more, something plus—character! The character that makes Chesterfields par for cigarettes. They satisfy!

STUDENTS HEAR FR. VAETH ON PROPAGATION OF FAITH

On Wednesday morning, March 20th, the entire Student Body assembled in the Chapel to listen to a very interesting talk by Father Vaeth on the purpose and work of the Propagation of the Faith.

The reverend speaker pointed out that since 1908 the United States has not been considered a mission country and that the vast sums of money collected here for mission aid were being used entirely for foreign missions. This method did not meet with the approval of the American people as there are many missions in our own country that are sorely in need of assistance.

To meet this just demand on the part of Americans to help the home missions The Society of the Propagation of the Faith increased its membership fee from sixty cents a year to one dollar. Now sixty per cent of the fee money goes to Rome for the foreign missions while the remaining forty per cent is used exclusively for the home missions.

Father Vaeth expressed an earnest desire to establish the Propagation of the Faith at Loyola and then proceeded to explain a plan which is working to good advantage at other Catholic colleges.

In conclusion Father Vaeth told in his interesting manner of the many sacrifices made by generous souls for this very worthy cause and pointed out to Loyola students that they can also help if even in a small way.

STUDENT RETREAT

there were the Stations of the Cross followed by another short talk and the retreat day came to an end with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Father Strohaber from the very beginning of the retreat won the confidence of the students. The first day was taken up mainly with the purpose of the retreat and the necessity of making the retreat worth while.

On the second day Father Strohaber based his talks on the Kingdom of Christ. With rapid strokes and in vivid descriptions the Retreat Master painted a picture of an ideal worldly king and his kingdom and then proceeded to show how insignificant are these earthly kings in comparison with Christ and His Kingdom. That every loyal Catholic young man should follow the call of the King of Kings was the application.

On the final day of the retreat Christ the Soldier was considered. Father Strohaber portrayed the great military leaders of the world's long history passing in review and made special reference to the loyal devotion and self-sacrifice of the common soldiers to

FRESHMAN GAINS TITLE IN POOL TOURNAMENT

Sixteen confident young men started play in the first round of the Annual Pool Tournament recently held in the college. The title of Pocket Billiard Champion was the coveted goal of each, but when the last ball had dropped neatly into the intended pocket, it was found that the cue of Irvin Klemoski of Freshman had been the most accurate, and so the crown of victory was placed upon his brow.

"Klem" gained the title by winning the final round from Edward Shoberg a Junior by the score of 100 to 69. The match, although rather one-sided, nevertheless proved very interesting to the large number of students who attended. On a number of occasions "Ed" staged splendid rallies, but these always died before they seriously threatened the commanding lead piled up by the skill of "Klem."

Besides the finalists, Eddie Cannon and Ray Rodgers also made splendid showings, both reaching the semi-final round, when Cannon lost to Shoberg 75 to 49 and Rodgers to Klemoski 75 to 69.

The interest and sportsmanship displayed throughout the tournament were very gratifying to the sponsors, and that speaks well for future contests.

There will be an added attraction on April 14th for those Alumni who have not visited Evergreen of late months. The new Library Building, although not as yet quite ready for occupation, has shed its wooden coat of scaffolding and the work of pointing has been completed.

these leaders. If these men were willing to sacrifice so much for an earthly leader what then should not the Catholic young man do for his leader Christ, the God-man.

On Holy Thursday the students received Holy Communion in a body. After Mass all went to the Science Building where a welcome surprise awaited all in the form of a light breakfast.

G. U. GAINS CLOSE DECISION OVER GREYHOUND DEBATERS

On Wednesday March 20, Loyola College represented by Messrs. Jno. DeV. Patrick and Anselm Sodaro, Sophomores of the Bellarmine Debating Society, lost a hotly contested debate by a very close decision to the White Debating Society of Georgetown University, which was represented by Messrs. John D. Reilly, John C. Hayes, Sophomores and Mr. John D. Murphy, Freshman.

The question debated was: Resolved that enlarging our Navy at this time is consistent with our desire for world peace." Our debaters upheld the negative side, while Georgetown defended the affirmative.

After Mr. Patrick thanked Mr. Lawrence Gorman S. J., Moderator of the White Debating Society, for his efforts in making possible the meeting, and the Reception Committee for their warm hospitality, he began the attack for the Greyhounds. He made clear the stand of the negative and clearly showed how preparations for war would only lead to war. Mr. Sodaro continued the attack by proving that any increase in our naval forces at the present time would imply a lack of confidence in the efficacy of the Kellogg Peace Pact and thus crush the strong existing sentiment for world peace. Mr. Rozea continued the argumentation showing with a clear and convincing speech that enlargement of our navy at this time would cause naval competition with Great Britain, the ultimate result of which would lead to rivalry and war.

The main points of the affirmative were that naval increase was consistent with the Arms Conference of 1922; that it was consistent with the Kellogg Treaty; finally, that it was consistent with the right of sovereign nations to defend themselves. In the rebuttal our debaters seemed to have the edge; were always the aggressors, and always led the attack. They bombarded the Georgetown orators with one type of fire: "At this time." The speeches began and ended with this phrase and it became such a powerful gun in the armory of the negative that it clearly disconcerted the opposition.

The chairman of the debate was Mr. James P. Quinn Jr., '29, of Georgetown. The judges were Mr. Hugh J. Fegan, Assistant Dean of the Law Faculty; Mr. Wm. P. Kennedy, journalist, and Mr. Martin J. McNamara, attorney-at-law. The Loyola College faculty was represented by Rev. John A. Risacher S. J., Mr. Berger S. J., and Mr. Schlareth S. J., moderator of debating at Loyola.

Mr. Eugene Twardowicz, prominent young athlete of this College, is now engaged in the sale of "Bow-sers," which, says Mr. Twardo, are a sure cure for that tired feeling so prevalent in the Spring. Try one!

Mr. Thomas Alminde has returned from a trip to Philadelphia. He announces that knickers and long trousers will be worn by gentlemen this year.

FR. MURRAY MAKES APPEAL FOR MISSIONS FROM P. I.

Zamboanga, Feb. 23, 1929.

Dear Joe:

I hardly know with what reverence I should approach the honored president of a senior class—so I shall merely consider I am writing to a friend, and thus feel sure that my failure to answer two most welcome letters will be forgiven. If you are not attentive docile and benevolent after that I lose. I have been really at sea, in more ways than one. Uncertainty as to destination and occupation have made me loathe to respond to your urging to tell what you could do to lend a hand or give a push to a so-called missionary.

But now I am fairly well settled, having taken my last vows at Cagayan February 2nd. And I am settling down to earnest preparation for a high school in Zamboanga. What do I need? Books, money and men. You can send all three provided they are of Loyola brand. No "kidding," some of the boys might seriously think of coming out here and I could use them as teachers nicely. I don't urge this but if any have the wanderlust they could do worse than wandering out here. There are opportunities for a man who doesn't drink too much nor gamble his all away.

Teaching is not an occupation I would advise as a permanent vocation, but it gives a start and a knowledge of the people. And they wouldn't have to know Spanish here either as most the young people speak English. Here and in some other parts of the Islands they speak Spanish if they are children or old folks, but the Zamboanga Spanish is innocent of grammar, Chabocano, they call it.

In most other parts of the Archipelago, Visayan and Lagalog are the lingos. However it remains that our own tongue is the most widely spoken, if you except profane.

In my letter to Louie O'Donnell, I explained what sort of books I could use. It only remains to cover the third heading, money, any kind except counterfeit and stage money. The natives here are "wise" to United Cigar coupons so don't send them. But even if you can send neither men, money, nor books, I sincerely want you and all the boys to remember me in your prayers.

Thomas J. Murray S. J. '29,
Loyola.

This appeal, coming from one who has always been so close to the hearts and interests of Loyola men, should not go unheeded and especially should this appeal be answered by the upper class men. For Father Murray is not one to ask for help such as this unless he deemed it absolutely necessary.

Remember, too, that Father Murray has been chosen as the missionary adopted by the college. So fellows, answer this appeal and do what you can to show by actual deeds that the men of Loyola do not forget their friends and especially those who are far from home. (Editor's Note.)
